Staffing Update: Class Three

Dear Parents,

For the Spring term, Mrs Rowden kindly agreed to increase her working days at Blackbrook, and Mrs Kramer equally agreed to work an additional day, following the news that Ms Cosgrove would be leaving the school at the end of December.

As we approach the Easter holidays, we are now in a position to communicate the teaching structure for the Summer Term. Whilst Mrs Rowden will continue to teach in Class Three on some days, the class will also be taught by Miss Matthews, with whom most of the class are already familiar, and were very pleased to see on a recent visit to the school in anticipation of her upcoming return from maternity leave.

As the continuous teacher for most of this year, we have ensured that Mrs Rowden remains to have a good proportion of teaching responsibility for the class and we are making arrangements to ensure the transition will be as smooth as possible.

The general structure will be as follows:

	Morning	Afternoon
Monday	Miss Matthews	Miss Matthews
Tuesday	Miss Matthews	Miss Matthews
Wednesday	Mrs Rowden	Miss Matthews
Thursday	Mrs Rowden	Miss Matthews
Friday	Mrs Rowden	Mrs Rowden

We are looking forward to Miss Matthews' return, and we would also like to take this opportunity to thank both Mrs Rowden and Mrs Kramer for their adaptability and ensuring that the teaching offer in Class Three has continued to be strong.

Mrs Rowden will be happy to discuss this with you at your parent consultation meeting this week.

Best Wishes,

Mr D. Seviour
